COMMISSIONER ITEMS

VICE CHAIR FRAIJO

Responding to several questions by Vice Chair Fraijo regarding the availability of grant funds for the replacement of playground equipment, Manager Zepeda indicated that the city would be receiving the higher amount of funds available. Vice Chair Fraijo thanked the Council for its support of the Commission's recommendations and thanked staff for its park maintenance efforts.

COMMISSIONER
HICKMAN

Commissioner Hickman asked when the new playground equipment would be installed, to which Manager Zepeda indicated that, if all goes according to plan, staff is hopeful to have the equipment installed before spring break, but if that is not feasible, then definitely before summer vacation.

ASSISTANT CITY
MANAGER OLIVARES

Assistant City Manager Olivares added that, assuming approval of all the pertinent documentation by the Council and the City Attorney, staff hopes to have the purchase order issued by Wednesday.

VICE CHAIR FRAIJO

Vice Chair Fraijo asked whether the expenses involved in purchasing the new playground equipment would delay progress on the second and third phases for the park renovation project, to which Assistant City Manager Olivares noted that, though neither project has been budgeted for, one project would not delay the other. She added that plans for the remaining phases for the park renovation project have not fallen by the wayside.

Vice Chair Fraijo noted that the state could be headed to another drought and requested that staff purchase and place signs throughout the city that say "Brown is the New Green" to advise the community of the city's water conservation efforts.

Vice Chair Fraijo also suggested increasing the pay of Recreation Aides in an attempt of retaining good employees, to which Assistant City Manager Olivares advised that all city employees are being compensated according to the Classification and Compensation Study that was completed recently.

CHAIR DIAZ

Chair Diaz spoke highly of the workers who are working on constructing new housing near El Nido Park.
